THEATRICAL FASHION SHOW AND TEA PARTY TO BENEFIT ARIZONA THEATRE COMPANY

William Travilla's private collection joins designs of Dancing with the Stars and The Pajama Game

The Arizona Theatre Company Associates, Arizona Theatre Company's volunteer organization, announces its fourth annual Drama Queens on the Green event, Sunday, March 16, 2008 at 2:00 PM. Featured at the Pavilion at the Phoenician Resort, Drama Queens on the Green is a theatrical fashion show and tea party set in three incredible acts that are sure to dazzle and amaze attendees. In the spirit of Drama Queens on the Green, guests are encouraged to wear their most beautiful and creative hats.

Act One begins with a variety of dazzling costumes from ATC's fun and frisky production of The Pajama Game. In Act Two, guests will enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime look at an elegant private collection from the estate of Oscar and Emmy Award-winning costume designer, William Travilla. The late Mr. Travilla is best known for his design of the most famous dress in the world, Marilyn Monroe's white halter dress from The Seven Year Itch. Act Three features a gorgeous array of Dancing with the Stars costumes, all designed by Emmy Award-winning costume designer Randall Christensen.

Drama Queens on the Green guests will dine on a decadent selection of finger sandwiches, scones with imported Devonshire cream and preserves, pastries and an assortment of fine teas.

A beautiful, custom-designed Crown Ring will be donated by Joseph Schubach Jewelers to be given away in the Drama Queens on the Green raffle. The ring will be made especially for the winner, whether a Queen or a King, and will be crafted in 18 karat gold with Tsavorite garnets, amethysts, pearls and diamonds.

Guests may also bid on luxurious beauty and health treatments, couture fashions, sporting events, travel opportunities, fine dining and cultural activities in the silent auction.
